13 vs.

14 Fencescreen, Inc.,

15 Defendant.

Case No. 8:18-cv-00907-JFW-JPR

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

16
17 The Court on September 12, 2018 issued its Order granting Plaintiff's
18 preliminary injunction motion [Docket No. 51]. The Court found that good cause
19 exists for the granting of the motion as set forth in the Order.

20 NOW THEREFORE, the Court hereby ORDERS, effective upon the posting
21 of undertaking in the amount of $25,000 as set forth in the Order, and pending trial or 22 further order of the Court, as follows:

23 Defendant Fencescreen, Inc., its agents, and any employees, agents, servants,
24 officers, representatives, directors, successors, affiliates and assigns and entities
25 owned or controlled by Defendant, and all those in active concert and/or participation
26 with Defendant, and each of them who receive notice of such injunction, pending trial
27 on the merits, be and hereby are enjoined and restrained from engaging in the 28 following acts:

- 1 i. manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting,
2 distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling, and/or using in any manner
3 (including but not limited to, in any search engine sponsored advertisements,
4 URL, and/or website meta tag, page source, or page info) Pexco's FENCE
5 WEAVE trademark, and/or any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable
6 imitation or simulation thereof, and/or any spurious designation that is identical
7 to or substantially indistinguishable from the FENCE WEAVE trademark, on 8 and/or in connection with any fence product imported, distributed, advertised,
9 marketed, offered for sale, and/or sold by Defendant in the United States,
10 and/or imported into the United States, that is not or was not manufactured by 11 or on behalf of Plaintiff; and
12 ii. instructing, assisting, aiding, or abetting any person or entity in engaging in or 13 performing any of the activities referred to in subparagraph (i).

15
16 IT IS SO ORDERED.
